

MUSEUM IN A MINUTE

YOUNG ADULT LAB: BLIND CONTOUR DRAWINGS

BLIND CONTOUR DRAWING IS A WAY TO GET COMFORTABLE DRAWING THAT HELPS YOU TO PRACTICE HAND EYE COMMUNICATION. LET GO OF YOUR EXPECTATIONS FOR THE FINAL PRODUCT AND CREATE SOMETHING THAT CANNOT BE PLANNED. THERE ARE ONLY 2 RULES TO BLIND CONTOUR DRAWING. DO NOT LOOK AT YOUR PAPER AND DO NOT LIFT YOUR DRAWING UTENSIL

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

PAPER

DRAWING UTENSIL

A FRIEND, SIBLING,
MIRROR, OR PET

- 1 Poke the drawing utensil through a peice of paper so that the paper rests at the top of the pen or pencil. This will prevent you from slipping a peek
- 2 Draw your partner (or yourself without looking down or lifting your pencil. Feel the way that your hand moves and follow of outlines of your partners face with your eyes
- 3 reveal your comleted drawing. Coloring in or watercolor optional for a more complete look. Practice over and over to increase your skill and create beautiful works of art